DELHI - Freshman Molly Hembera joined her sister Shelby on the sidelines Friday night with a migraine headache, stripping the Cedar Valley Christian girls basketball team of its two leading scorers.

Their absence led to a 55-13 loss to Maquoketa Valley on the road in Delhi.

Shelby Hembera, who leads the state in scoring at 30.3 points, has been sidelined the past week with a severely sprained ankle. Molly Hembera has helped carry the load in her sister's absence with a 10.3 scoring average, but she was unavailable as well Friday.

Maggie Cach led the short-handed Huskies with six points as their record fell to 7-7 with their fourth straight loss.

Brianna Mensen scored 14 points for Maquoketa Valley (13-4).
