MAYNARD - The Cedar Valley Christian girls basketball team set a school record with six 3-pointers Thursday night, but it couldn't save them from dropping their 10th straight game.

The Huskies lost to West Central, 55-42.

The six triples are the most for Cedar Valley Christian since it joined the IGHS AU four years ago. Emma Slagle, Elisabeth Fields and Maggie Cach had two triples apiece. Cach led the Huskies (7-13) with 12 points and Molly Hembera had 11.

Kenzie Squires scored 20 points for West Central (2-17).
