CLINTON - Cedar Valley scored goals early and late to beat Prince of Peace, 2-0, Monday in boys soccer.

Cedar Valley's first goal came in the second minute, its second with two minutes left in the match.

The Huskies scored their first goal when Arturo Melendez played a perfectly weighted through ball to Luke Zasadny, who scored the goal.

The second goal came when Izzy Hoffman won a loose ball and played a through ball to Danielo Mafuta, who put it in the back of the net.

Joseph Zasadny had four saves to keep a clean sheet as keeper.
