BELLEVUE - Evan Koch earned a spot in the Cedar Valley Christian history books Tuesday.

Koch hit the first home run in school history when he belted a solo shot over the left-field fence in the sixth inning against Bellevue Marquette in the first game of a doubleheader.

Marquette swept the doubleheader, 11-3 and 11-1 in five innings.

Tom Scroggs had two hits for Cedar Valley Christian (0-3) in the first game. Will Muhlbach had two stolen bases.
