CENTRAL CITY - Cedar Valley Christian had the rug pulled out from under it Thursday night by Central City's volleyball team.

The Huskies (5-6) won the first two sets in their match against the Wildcats, 25-19, 25-17.

Central City came storming back to win the final three sets, 25-22, 25-22, 15-8 and claim the match.

Jessie Walsh had six kills and six assists for the Huskies. Grace Etzel had six digs.
