The Cedar Valley Christian soccer team was shut out by Mid-Prairie, 3-0, in its first match as a member of the Iowa High School Athletic Association Thursday at the Tuma Soccer Complex.

The Huskies were missing four starters due to spring break.

"It was a good first showing," said Coach Adam Conn.

Austin Errthum scored two goals for Mid-Prairie and Riley Sieren had the other. Mid-Prairie goal keeper Chase Murray had to stop only three shots.

Will Muhlbach made 18 saves for Cedar Valley. The Huskies have five girls on their 21-person roster. The school does not have a girls soccer team.
