The Kishwaukee Community College women's basketball team showed up at Kirkwood with only five players Friday night. Then one player fouled out.

Then another.

By the time the mismatch was over, Kishwaukee had only three players on the floor and the third-ranked Kirkwood Eagles had a 109-26 victory.

Kirsten Larson led Kirkwood (3-0) with 19 points.

The Eagles expect a much harder time against State Fair (Mo.) on Saturday at 3 p.m.
