PHOENIX - The Kirkwood women's volleyball team pulled off another upset at the NJCAA Division II national tournament Saturday and finished seventh in the country this year.

The Eagles topped Central of Nebraska, 3-1, in their final match in the double-elimination tournament in Phoenix to end the season with a 30-17 record.

Kirkwood was seeded 12th out of 16 teams in the tournament and went 2-2 in four matches. The Eagles upset No. 5 seed Owens, lost to No. 4 seed DMACC, lost to No. 8 seed Cowley and whipped No. 7 seed Central.
