

KCC golfers lead Scot-Fire Classic

Written by Metro Sports Report

Friday, 25 April 2014 19:41 - Last Updated Friday, 25 April 2014 19:46

MONMOUTH, Ill. - Nathan Chilcott and Ryan Palser fired even-par 71's Friday as the Kirkwood Eagles grabbed the opening-day lead at the Scot-Fire Classic at Gibson Woods Golf Course.

Kirkwood leads the tournament with a four-man score of 290 after 18 holes.

Alec Meyer of the College of DuPage set the pace with a 2-under 69.

Team Standings

1. Kirkwood 290, 2. Black Hawk College 295, 3. Monmouth 299, 4. Parkland 301, 5. College of DuPage 303, 6. Augustana (Ill.) 305, 7. Illinois Central 308.

KIRKWOOD: Nathan Chilcott 71, Ryan Palser 71, Ben Jones 73, Blaine Buhr 75, Sheldon Gryp 79.