LA CROSSE, Wis. - Kirkwood's men's golfers had another consistent day Monday, but didn't have enough to overtake St. Ambrose for the team title at the Ronnie Eastman Invitational.

The Eagles shot 302 on Monday to finish at 602, 11 strokes behind the Bees. St. Ambrose's Sergio Garcia was the medalist with a two-day total of 2-under par, 142 on the par-72 LaCrosse Country Club course.

Kirkwood's Carson Whittington took second, shooting a 147 leaving him five shots behind Garcia and one shot ahead of teammate Charles Hartwig, who tied for third after shooting a 148.
