

Eagles lead Fighting Scot golf tourney

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 23 April 2016 21:20 -

MONMOUTH, Ill. - Carson Whittington fired a 2-under-par 69 Saturday to help the Kirkwood Eagles grab a 10-shot lead after the first round of the Fighting Scot Invitational at Gibson Woods Golf Course.

Charlie Hartwig shot a 1-over 72 as the Eagles finished the first 18 holes at 294. Hartwig is tied for third place.

Louis Flynn shot a 75, Eddie Doyle and Mitchell Willems submitted 78's and Jordan Even had a 79 for Kirkwood.

Augustana is in second place at 304. The final round is Sunday.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Kirkwood 294, 2. Augustana 304, 3. Black Hawk 306, 4. Monmouth Red 306, 5. Grinnell 308, 6. North Central 309, 7. Iowa Wesleyan 320, 8. Illinois College 322, 9. Knox 323, 10. Monmouth White 330, 11. Augustana JV 334, 12. Monmouth Black 340.