

Kirkwood golfers struggle in KC

Written by Metro Sports Report

Tuesday, 18 October 2016 04:55 - Last Updated Tuesday, 18 October 2016 04:56

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - The Kirkwood men's golf team struggled in windy conditions at The National Golf Course in Kansas City Monday and sits in seventh place in the team standings after 18 holes.

The final round in the Park University Invitational is scheduled for Tuesday.

Charlie Hartwig led Kirkwood with an 8-over-par 80.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Sterling 320, 2. Bethany 322, 3. Lindenwood-Belleville 327, 4. Evangel 330, 5. Kansas City Community College 336, 6. Huntington 337, 7. Kirkwood 344, 8. Graceland 347, 9. Avila 348.

KIRKWOOD: Charlie Hartwig 80, JD Goodfellow 86, Jordan Even 87, Louis Flynn 91, Max Thrune 97.