

Moore wins Kirkwood golf tourney

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 07 October 2013 19:49 -

Former Kennedy golfer Harrison Moore claimed top honors at Kirkwood's Fall Eagle Classic Monday at Hunters Ridge.

Moore finished in first place with rounds of 70 and 73 for a 36-hole total of 1-under-par 143 to help Indian Hills Community College win the title. He beat teammate Jakob Garstecki by two shots.

Indian Hills took the title at 577. Kirkwood finished second at 601.

Nathan Chilcott of Kirkwood tied for third place at 71-75=146.

Team Standings

1. Indian Hills 577, 2. Kirkwood 601, 3. Mount Mercy 620, 4. Iowa Central 627, 5. Northeastern 641, 6. NIACC 647.

Top 5 Individuals Par 72

1. Harrison Moore, Indian Hills	70-73=143
2. Jakob Garstecki, Indian Hills	73-72=145
3. Colin Pearson, Indian Hills	75-71=146
Nathan Chilcott, Kirkwood	71-75=146
Ben Hogan, Iowa Central	69-77=146
Sam Sloman, Indian Hills	73-73=146

Kirkwood - 3. Nathan Chilcott 71-75=146, 8. Ryan Palser 75-74=149, 12. Sheldon Gryp 76-77=153, 14. Drew Slings 75-80=155, 17. Brian Schreck 78-78=156.

Moore wins Kirkwood golf tourney

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 07 October 2013 19:49 -
