

Eagles take series from No. 11 Tritons

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 12 April 2014 18:22 -

Matt Paciello went 4-for-4 and led a 15-hit attack as Kirkwood dumped Iowa Central, 12-4, in the second game of an ICCAC conference doubleheader at Kirkwood Saturday afternoon.

Iowa Central won the first game, 12-0, in five innings.

Kirkwood took three-of-four games in the weekend series from the 11th-ranked Tritons. The Eagles raised their records to 18-10 overall and 5-7 in the league. Iowa Central fell to 25-13 overall and 10-6 in the conference.

Angel Merced hit his fourth home run and drove in two runs for Kirkwood in the second game. Shane Kemp went 3-for-4 and drove in two runs. Randy Perez and Austin Schmitt collected two RBIS. Nick Jones went 2-for-3 and scored three runs.

Jeffrey Castillo pitched six innings for the victory.