The Kirkwood Eagles will host DMACC in a premier basketball doubleheader at Johnson Hall Wednesday night.

The fourth-ranked Kirkwood women (17-4, 5-0) will face DMACC (14-7, 3-2) at 5:30, followed by a showdown between the seventh-ranked Kirkwood men (16-4, 3-1) and eighth-ranked DMACC men (17-4, 3-1) at 7:30.

The Eagles sit all alone in first place in the ICCAC standings.

The Kirkwood and DMACC men's teams are tied for first place in their conference standings.
