Kirkwood Community College women's basketball coach Kim Muhl will be honored Saturday at Johnson Hall for his 750th victory with the Eagles.

The ceremony will take place at approximately 12:45 p.m., prior to Kirkwood's game against NIACC. Immediately following the women's game, guests are invited to Classroom 130 at Johnson Hall for refreshments to congratulate Muhl.

Kirkwood is hosting NIACC in a doubleheader. The women's game features No. 3 Kirkwood (19-4, 7-0) against No. 8 NIACC (17-4, 6-1) in a showdown for first place in the ICCAC conference at 1 p.m. Kirkwood has won 15 straight games and NIACC has won seven straight games.

The men's game features No. 11 Kirkwood (17-5, 4-2) against NIACC (13-10, 3-3) at 3 p.m. Kirkwood is in second place in the ICCAC standings.

Local high school students will be admitted to the games for free. Kirkwood has designated Saturday as "bleed blue" day, with spectators asked to wear Kirkwood's blue colors.
