The eighth-ranked Kirkwood Eagles will host a regional softball tournament this weekend with three teams competing at the Kirkwood field.

Southwestern (25-17) will play Ellsworth (4-42) at noon on Saturday. Kirkwood (38-8) will face the loser of Game 1 at 2 p.m. and the Eagles will play the winner of Game 1 at 4 p.m.

The double-elimination tournament will continue Sunday at noon.

The regional champion will advance to a two-team district tournament next week. The district champion will advance to the NJCAA Division II national tournament.
