

Eagles tied for lead at Scot-Fire

Written by Metro Sports Report

Friday, 24 April 2015 18:41 - Last Updated Friday, 24 April 2015 18:46

GALESBURG, Ill. - Carson Whittington shot a 69 to share the individual lead, helping Kirkwood to a share of the team lead after one day of the Scot-Fire Invitational.

Friday's action was held at Soangetaha Country Club.

Whittington and St. Francis' Hutson Gass both shot 69 on Friday. The Eagles and St. Francis share the team lead a 292, five shots better than Black Hawk College. Kirkwood's Dan Cuttcomp is tied for fourth after shooting a 71.

The final round is scheduled for Saturday at Gibson Woods Golf Course in Monmouth, Ill.

TEAM STANDINGS

T1. Kirkwood 292, T1. St. Francis 292, 3. Black Hawk 297, T4. Illinois Central 305, T4 Millikin 305, T6. Monmouth 311, T6. Parkland 311, 8. North Central 315, T9. Millikin (B) 317, T9. College of DuPage 317, 11. Illinois College 318, 12. Augustana 321, 13. Grinnell 324, T14. Iowa Wesleyan 325, T14. Benedictine 325, 16. Augustana(B) 330, 17. Monmouth (B) 346, 18. Iowa Wesleyan (B) 407

KIRKWOOD: T1. Carson Whittington 69, T4. Dan Cuttcomp 71, T14. Blaine Buhr 75, T.23 Dylan Daxon 77, T. 68. Ben Jones 84.