Iowa Lakes Community College has forfeited its women's basketball game against Kirkwood that was scheduled for Saturday afternoon in Estherville.

Kirkwood athletic director Doug Wagemester said Iowa Lakes has only six or seven players on its roster. In addition, he said Iowa Lakes Coach Corey Christopher has resigned.

Iowa Lakes is a member of the Iowa Community College Athletic Conference (ICCAC) with Kirkwood.

Kirkwood has already been awarded a forfeit by the conference office, giving the fourth-ranked Eagles a 14-4 overall record and 1-0 mark in the league. Iowa Lakes is now 10-6 and 0-1 in the league.

Wagemester said Iowa Lakes has been given approximately one week to decide whether it will continue with the rest of the women's basketball schedule this season.
