

Kirkwood sweeps Lewis & Clark

Written by Metro Sports Report

Sunday, 06 March 2016 18:55 - Last Updated Sunday, 06 March 2016 18:58

ALTON, Ill. - Kirkwood's Tyler Bordner smacked three home runs, driving home six runs, as the Eagles completed a sweep of Lewis & Clark Community College, 18-6, on Sunday.

General McArthur pounded out a pair of solo homers as the Eagles rallied with two runs in the top of the seventh to win the opener 6-5.

Bryce Grimm had two hits and drove home five in the nightcap. Colin Kreiter had two hits, including a home run and Matt Paciello also had a pair of hits.

Austin Clemens pitched 4 1/3 innings to get the win, giving up eight hits and three earned runs, striking out two and walking two.

Grimm also homered for Kirkwood (4-4) in the opener. Luke Hassman had a homer and three RBI in the game. Jake Faur pitched 2/3 of an inning to get the win, Dariel Checo retired the hosts in order in the seventh to gain the save.

Game 1

Kirkwood 012 010 2 - 6 8 1

Lewis & Clark 023 000 0 - 5 6 1

WP - Checo. LP - Deford. HR: McArthur (2), Grimm, Hassmann

Game 2

Kirkwood 002 522 7 - 18 14 2

Kirkwood sweeps Lewis & Clark

Written by Metro Sports Report

Sunday, 06 March 2016 18:55 - Last Updated Sunday, 06 March 2016 18:58

Lewis & Clark 050 010 0 - 6 10 5

WP - Clemens. LP - Lee. HR: Bordner (3), Kreiter