

Even sizzles again for Kirkwood golfers

Written by Jim Ecker

Saturday, 01 October 2016 04:56 -

FORT DODGE - Jordan Even fired a 4-under-par 67 Friday to claim medalist honors and help Kirkwood win the championship at the Iowa Central Invitational at the Fort Dodge Country Club.

Even, a Xavier grad, has won two outright titles and tied for another in Kirkwood's three tournaments this season. The sixth-ranked Eagles have won two of those tournaments after finishing second in the national tournament last spring.

Kirkwood edged Iowa Central, 302-305, for the title.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Kirkwood 302, 2. Iowa Central 305, 3. Kirkwood White 316, 4. Iowa Central Blue 319, 5. Grand View 332, 6. DMACC White 336, 7. (tie) Iowa Central White 342, DMACC 342, 9. Iowa Central Gray 357, 10. Hawkeye 361.

KIRKWOOD: Jordan Even 67, Louis Flynn 77, Max Thrune 77, Charlie Hartwig 81, JD Goodfellow 84.

KIRKWOOD WHITE: Jake Sevcik 76, Niall Powell 77, Luke Winker 79, Kendrick Bemiss 84, Josh McCormick 87.