No. 4 Eagles finish 3-1 at tournament

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 25 August 2019 05:22 -

ROCKFORD, Ill. - Freshman Olivia Richards collected 31 kills Saturday as the fourth-ranked Kirkwood Eagles split their final two matches at the McHenry volleyball tournament in Rockford, Ill.

Richards had 15 kills as the Eagles lost to Kansas City Community College, 25-20, 25-20, 18-25, 25-21, in their first match. She then had 16 kills as Kirkwood topped Grand Rapids Community College, 25-18, 24-26, 25-20, 25-22, in their next contest.

Kirkwood finished with a 3-1 record at the McHenry tournament to begin the season.

Madi Wagaman had 24 assists and 12 digs in the loss to Kansas City. Anna Gorsich contributed 11 kills and 14 digs. Maranda Wheelock had 17 digs. Maggie Peters blocked five shots.

Taylor Carey had 12 kills in the victory over Grand Rapids. Wagaman had 34 more assists. Wheelock had 22 digs and Gorsich had 18 digs. Peters blocked eight more shots and Wagaman had five blocks.