The Minnesota Twins have rescheduled Ricky Nolasco's rehab start with the Cedar Rapids Kernels for Sunday against the Kane County Cougars at 2:05 p.m.

Nolasco is making his second rehab stint with the Kernels. He made two starts (both no-decisions) with a 2.89 ERA allowing three runs on 10 hits, walking one and striking out eight over 9.1 innings.

Nolasco will be returning to Minneapolis immediately following his rehab start with the Kernels and will NOT be available on the field after the game for the player autograph session following the game.
