Brett Doe has been promoted from the Cedar Rapids Kernels to the Fort Myers Miracle, according to the rosters for both teams.

The Kernels and Minnesota Twins have not announced the move, but Doe has been removed from the Kernels roster on the club's website and has been added to the Fort Myers roster.

Doe, 25, hit .285 with three home runs and 19 RBIs for Cedar Rapids in 46 games. He was used as a first baseman, catcher, designated hitter and third baseman by the Kernels.

The Twins picked Doe in the 38th round of the 2014 draft from Baylor.
