

Fitzgerald sets school record for Coe

Written by Metro Sports Report

Friday, 21 November 2014 21:25 - Last Updated Friday, 21 November 2014 21:26

Freshman Sam Fitzgerald, a Linn-Mar graduate, set a school record in winning the 100-yard breaststroke as Coe downed Nebraska Wesleyan, 132-69, in a women's swimming meet Friday night at the Clark Aquatic Center.

Nebraska Wesleyan won the men's meet, 118-69.

Fitzgerald touched in 1:09.64. She also won the 50 freestyle and was on the winning 200 freestyle relay. Kendall Bundy and Lindsay Meade were also double winners for Coe. Bundy won the 200 individual medley and 100 backstroke. Meade won the 100 and 200 freestyles. Both were also on the winning 200 freestyle relay.