SANFORD, Fla. – The 36th-ranked Coe men's tennis team topped Ohio Wesleyan, 7-2, in a dual meet Tuesday at Sylvan Lake Park in Florida.

Brady Anderson, ranked 15th, beat Shouta Fukamachi, 6-1, 6-3, in the No. 1 singles match to lead the Kohawks. He teammed up with Nate Ackert to win the
No. 2 doubles match, 8-4, over Jack Hibbard and Alex Lutz.

Ryan Hickman, Alex Bernt, Josh Pudlo and Zack Decker also won singles matches for Coe, which improved to 12-2.

Ohio Wesleyan fell to 3-4.

COE 7, OHIO WESLEYAN 2

Singles
1. Brady Anderson (C) def. Shouta Fukamachi 6-1, 6-3
2. Ryan Hickman (C) def. Jakraraj Rungaseng 6-1, 6-0
3. Alex Bernt (C) def. Elliot Garwood 6-4, 6-1
4. Jack Hibbard (OW) def. Evgeny Pakhomenko 1-6, 6-4, 13-11
5. Josh Pudlo (C) def. Felipe Duarte 6-3, 6-4
6. Zack Decker (C) def. Pako Alevizopoulos 6-2, 6-0

Doubles
1. Riley Galbraith/Ryan Hickman (C) def. Shouta Fukamachi/Jakraraj Rungaseng 8-3
2. Nate Ackert/Brady Anderson (C) def. Jack Hibbard/Alex Lutz 8-4
3. Noah Santiago/Jacob Volbers (OW) def. Mark Kroll/Chad Moklestad 9-8 (7-5)