The 36th-ranked Coe men's tennis team earned a pair of wins, beating Rochester 5-4 Thursday morning at Lakeland, Fla., and beating Wheaton 6-3 in the afternoon at Altamonte Springs, Fla.

Although the Kohawks earned the two team wins, it was a bad day for 15th-ranked No. 1 singles player Brady Anderson, who lost both of his matches.

Riley Galbraith won both of his No. 2 singles matches, however, and the Kohawks won five of their six doubles matches on the day.

Coe improved to 14-2. Rochester fell to 3-6, and Wheaton fell to 5-6.
