The Coe College women's tennis team dropped a 9-0 decision to Wisconsin-Whitewater Wednesday night at the Clark Racquet Center in the season opener for the Kohawks.

The Warhawks finished last season ranked 26th in the nation, while advancing to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. Coe also advanced to the NCAA Tournament last season.

The Kohawks return to action on Saturday, as they travel to Buena Vista. Coe's match against the Beavers will begin at 11 a.m. in Storm Lake. Coe was originally scheduled to face Midland as well, but that match has been canceled.
