

Coe clinches Bremner Cup with Cornell

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 04 April 2015 20:55 -

MOUNT VERNON - The Coe men's track team won the Cornell Open Saturday and clinched the 2014-15 Bremner Cup All-Sports Series against Cornell.

Erik Franklin captured the long jump for the Kohawks at 19 feet, 11 1/2 inches. Coe edged Southwestern Community College for the title, 155-150.

The Coe women's track team finished second in their division behind Cornell. Sammie Osterberger (100 hurdles), Laura Bybee (pole vault) and Kenzie Drahn (triple jump) won events for Coe.

The Kohawks also captured the 4x100 relay with Amanda Brummet, Cassie Hocker, Allie Osterberger and Sammie Osterberger.

MEN'S STANDINGS

1. Coe 155, 2. Southwestern CC 150, 3. Cornell 95, 4. NIACC 90, 5. Grinnell 82, 6. Northern Iowa 74.

WOMEN'S STANDINGS

1. Cornell 201, 2. Coe 188, 3. Grinnell 136, 4. Northern Iowa 73, 5. NIACC 52, 6. Southwestern 23, 7. Mount Mercy 4.