

Coe volleyball team splits 2 matches

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 13 September 2014 19:29 -

ST. PETER, Minn. - The Coe College volleyball split its two matches at the Gustavus Adolphus tournament in St. Peter (Minn.) Saturday.

The Kohawks lost to Augsburg, 25-14, 27-25, 25-20 in their first contest, then topped Wisconsin-Stout 25-21, 25-22, 25-20.

Rachel Schaefer had 17 kills against Wisconsin-Stout. Mackenzie Harbaugh contributed 38 assists and eight kills. Alissa Wittenburg finished with 26 digs. Brianna Smith had nine kills and Rachel Bosworth had four blocks.

The final statistics from Coe's match against Augsburg were not available.