The Coe College men's tennis team has turned the Iowa Conference tournament into a party for the Kohawks.

The Kohawks dominated the first day of competition Friday and will be looking to crown champions at the Clark Racquet Center Saturday.

Riley Galbraith, Brady Anderson and Alex Bernt of Coe have all reached the semifinals in the singles bracket. Galbraith will face Anderson in one match Saturday, with Bernt facing Kyle Appel of Luther in the other semifinal.

The Kohawks claimed two spots in the semifinals in doubles. Galbraith and Anderson paired for two victories Friday. Ryan Hickman and Mark Kroll also won two matches for Coe and reached the semifinals as well.
