ST.PETER, Minn. - Riley Galbraith and Brady Anderson of Coe College finished second at the ITA Midwest regional tennis tournament Sunday in t. Peter, Minn.

Galbraith and Anderson upset top-seeded Jake Humphreys and Ben Shklyar of Wisconsin-Whitewater in the semifinals, 8-6, for their fourth straight victory in the tournament.

Galbraith and Anderson won the first set in the championship match against second-seeded Motasem Al-Houni and Andres Saenz of Gustavus Adolphus, but Al-Houni and Saenz rallied for a 5-7, 6-1, 10-5 victory in a tiebreaker.

Al-Houni is from Libya and Saenz is from Mexico.

Galbraith, a Cedar Rapids Kennedy grad, and Anderson, a Linn-Mar grad, were seeded third in the regional.
