Sarah Fathallah scored in the 82nd minute Saturday to snap a 1-1 tie and give the Coe women's soccer team a 2-1 victory over Simpson in an Iowa Conference game at Clark Field.

Simpson led 1-0 at halftime. Kelsey Fauser tied the match for the Kohawks in the 73rd minute, setting the stage for Fathallah's game-winner less than 10 minutes later. It was Fauser's fifth goal of the season and the seventh goal for Fathallah.

Brenna Winn collected an assist on Fauser's goal. Meg Tulenko got the assist on Fathallah's tally with a corner kick.

The Kohawks raised their records to 7-8 overall and 2-3 in the league. Simpson fell to 2-13-1 overall and 0-4-1 in the league.

The Coe men's soccer team lost to Simpson, 7-0, dropping the Kohawks to 3-12 overall and 0-5 in the league. Simpson raised its records to 11-7 overall and 2-3 in the conference.
