Three members of the Coe football team have received league honors from the Iowa Conference.

Matt Schmitz, a defensive lineman from Jesup, was named first team all-conference on defense.

Dylan Stepleton, a defensive back from Tipton, was named second team all-conference on defense. Mitch Berendes, a linebacker from Dubuque, also received second-team recognition on defense.

Coe finished 5-5 overall and 4-3 in the conference. The Kohawks tied for third place in the league.
