Tucker Dangremond, Sam Fitzgerald and Laura Bybee were named Performers of the Week Monday by the Iowa Conference.

Dangremond, a sophomore from Colorado Springs, Colo., was honored in men's swimming. He won the 100 breaststroke in a meet against Grinnell and helped the Kohawks capture the 200 freestyle relay.

Fitzgerald, a freshman from Linn-Mar, was saluted in women's swimming. She broke the school record in the 100 breaststroke for the third time this season in a meet against Northern Iowa and helped the Kohawks win the 200 freestyle relay against Grinnell.

Bybee, a junior from Pecatonica, Ill., was honored in women's track. She broke her own school record in the pole vault at 10 feet, 6 3/4 inches to claim first prize at the Wisconsin-Platteville Open.
