ST. PETER, Minn. - Brady Anderson of Coe placed second at the ITA Midwest Regional tennis tournament Sunday in St. Peter, Minn.

Anderson, a Linn-Mar grad, bumped off No. 1 seed Jake Humphreys of Wisconsin-Whitewater, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1, in the semifinals Sunday morning.

Anderson lost to No. 2 seed Mohaned Al-Houni of Gustavus Adolphus, 6-2, 6-2, in the finals Sunday afternoon.

Anderson, who was seeded No. 4, won six straight matches in the regional tournament before falling short in the championship match.
