CHICAGO - Marshall Shedeck's jump shot with 1:13 remaining in overtime gave Coe the lead for good as the Kohawks rallied for an 89-85 victory Sunday over Illinois Tech at the Keating Sports Center.

The Kohawks (5-3) trailed 40-36 at halftime. They forced overtime when Jacob Timm connected on a jump shot with 33 seconds remaining in regulation. Illinois Tech's Anthony Mosley, Jr. had a chance to win it, but his jumper with six seconds left was off the mark.

After Shedeck gave the Kohawks the lead in the extra session, his two free throws with three seconds left sealed the win.

Matt Meyer led a balanced Coe offense with 18 points. Timm added 15 and Shedeck finished with 14. Matt Vonderhaar chipped in with 13 while Spencer Williams had a solid game off the bench with 12 points and six rebounds. Timm led Coe in rebounds from his point guard position with eight.

Mosley had a game-high 23 points to lead Illinois Tech (1-8).
