For the second time this season, Coe sophomore women's basketballplayer Aleena Hobbs, a Washington graduate, has been named to the D3hoops.com National Team of the Week.

Hobbs was previously named to the D3hoops.com National Team of the Week after the first week of the season. Teammate Mickey Hansche was named to the D3hoops.com National Team of the Week after the second week.

Hobbs and Carnegie Mellon's Lisa Murphy are the only two players to earn the honor twice in the first four weeks. Hobbs was also named the Iowa Conference Female Athlete of the Week and the Iowa Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week earlier this week.

Hobbs recorded a pair of double-doubles last week, as she scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in both games against Carthage and 15th-ranked Wisconsin-Whitewater. In Coe's loss to the Warhawks, she was 9-of-16 from the field. She was also 7-of-11 from 3-point range in the two games.
