DECORAH - The shooting woes got worse for the Coe men's basketball team Saturday.

The Kohawks made only 26.2 percent of their shots from the field and lost to Decorah, 63-47, in an Iowa Conference game at the Regents Center in Decorah.

Coe shot only 16 for 61 from the field in the frigid performance.

Marshall Shedeck collected a double-double for the Kohawks with 11 points and 17 rebounds. Hunter Pflughaupt scored 12 points for Coe and Matt Vonderhaar had 10.

The Kohawks fell to 5-10 and 0-4. Coe led 25-24 at intermission, but the Kohawks were outscored 39-22 in the second half.

Kevin Stafford topped Luther (3-12, 2-2) with 12 points.
