

Kohawks win 7 titles at Cornell track

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 23 January 2016 19:59 -

MOUNT VERNON - Members of the Coe College track program won seven events Saturday at the Cornell Invitational at the Small Multi-Sport Center in Mount Vernon.

The Coe men captured five titles and finished a tight second in the team standings behind Central College. The Kohawks got victories from Nathan Suell in the 200 (23.55), Erik Franklin in the 400 (51.34), Beau Freeborn in the 800 (2:01.15), Chris Hawkins in the 60 hurdles (8.65) and Hawkins in the triple jump (12.71 meters).

The Coe women won two events and finished fifth in the standings. The Kohawks got victories from Laura Bybee in the pole vault (3.2 meters) and Melissa Alger in the shot put (11.06 meters).

The Coe men got second-place showings from Dray Schreiber in the 800 and the 4x400 relay. The Kohawks got third-place finishes from Robbie Peters in the weight throw, Ben Nelson in the 800 and Gordan Rey in the pole vault.

The Coe women received second-place showings from Lucy Conroy in the 3000, Sammie Osterberger in the 60 hurdles and Christina Brown in the pole vault.

Men's Standings

1. Central 108, 2. Coe 101, 3. Simpson 64, 4. Cornell 59, 5. Southwestern CC 54, 6. Clarke 37.

Women's Standings

1. Cornell 110, 2. Central 87, 3. Clarke 79, 4. Simpson 64, 5. Coe 62, 6. Southwestern CC 34.

Kohawks win 7 titles at Cornell track

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 23 January 2016 19:59 -
