KISSIMMEE, Fla. - Allie O'Brien and Maddy Ryan each rapped out two hits and Mallory McArtor drove home a pair of runs as Coe used a six-run fourth inning to down Kean, 7-2, on Sunday.

The Kohawks played a second game Sunday, losing a 5-3 decision to Thomas More.

In the win over Kean, McArtor's two-run double was the big hit in the six-run fourth. Mariah Fritz was the winning pitcher for Coe, striking out six and walking four.

Against Thomas More, Coe held a 3-2 lead entering the seventh only to give up three runs in the inning, the key blow a two-run homer from Staci Stewart.

O'Brien went 4-for-4 for Coe (4-2). Haley Jones had a pair of hits, including a solo homer in the fifth.

Arran Weeces took the loss for Coe, allowing five runs, but just one earned, on six hits. She struck out eight and walked three.
