

Mount Mercy golfers win Brickyard Classic

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 14 April 2015 18:01 -

INDIANAPOLIS - The Mount Mercy men's golf team captured top honors at the Brickyard Classic tournament in Indianapolis Tuesday.

The Mustangs were sitting in seventh place after the first round of the tournament Monday, but they caught fire over the final 18 holes and climbed all the way to the top.

Mount Mercy finished at 598, nipping 15th-ranked Cardinal Stritch and Lindsey Wilson College by one stroke in the 17-team event. The Mustangs shot 308 Monday, then lowered their score by 18 strokes to 290 on Tuesday.

Matt Schlueter placed seventh for the 21st-ranked Mustangs at 4-over-par 148. Jamie Booth fired a 3-under 69 Tuesday to help power the rally.

Dylan MacQueen of Cardinal Stritch claimed medalist honors with a 3-under 141.

MOUNT MERCY: Matt Schlueter 73-75=148, Jack South 79-72=151, Jacob Selander 78-74=152, Jamie Booth 83-69=152, Ben Franklin 78-79=157.