In a long day of baseball at Ken Charipar Field, the Mount Mercy baseball team took two of three from Midwest Collegiate Conference foe Viterbo on Sunday.

Mount Mercy (16-24 7-14 MCC) won the completion of Friday's suspended game, 6-1. The Mustangs followed that with a 3-1 win before dropping the series finale, 6-2.

Former Linn-Mar player Ben Larson had two hits and an RBI in the completion of the suspended game. Ex-Kennedy Cougar Cody Bell had two hits and two RBIs as Mount Mercy used a four-run fourth to put the game away. Cole Henke pitched a complete-game six-hitter.

Evan Boddicker was the star of Game 2. He allowed just four hits over seven innings, striking out three. Cody Williams had two hits for Mount Mercy.

Viterbo started fast in Game 3, touching Bell for three runs in one-plus inning of work. Patrick Haney had two hits for Mount Mercy.

Viterbo is 11-28, 5-17 MCC.
