The Mount Mercy softball team continued its strong play Sunday, sweeping Viterbo, 8-0 and 6-1, on Sunday in a Midwest Collegiate Conference doubleheader at Tomahawk Park.

Sunday's sweep gave the Mustangs six wins in their last seven games entering Monday's 5 p.m. regular-season finales against Grand View at Tomahawk.

In Game 1, Amanda Gaffey had a home run, double and three RBIs, going 3-for-3. Ellie Rizon had a pair of doubles, driving home three runs. Alexis Ferguson had two hits and two RBIs and Hannah Petersen also finished with two hits.

Liz Moore got the win, allowing just two hits while striking out four.

Rizon and Maddie Flemr each homered for the Mustangs in the nightcap. L.J. Putzier also had two hits, driving home a pair.

Claudia Magana was the winning pitcher, scattering five hits.

Viterbo is 5-34, 3-20.
