

Mustang golfers slip to ninth

Written by Metro Sports Report

Monday, 12 October 2015 13:12 - Last Updated Tuesday, 13 October 2015 12:06

OSKALOOSA - Mount Mercy fell from fifth to ninth place on the second day of the William Penn Classic on Monday at the Edmundson Golf Course.

The Mustangs shot 368 after shooting 349 on Sunday for a combined 717. Meg Monson led Mount Mercy with an 87 in windy conditions. Her two-day total of 166 was good for 16th place. Host William Penn won the title with a 632.

William Penn's Demi Coertze took medalist honors with a two-day total of 152.

Team Standings

1. William Penn 307+325=632, 2. William Penn B 325+323=648, 3. Dakota Wesleyan 327-335-662, 4. St. Francis (Ill.) 334+332=666, 5. Peru State 352+339=691, 6. William Penn C 349+355=704, 7. Briar Cliff 366+345=711, 8. Waldorf 356+360=716, 9. Mount Mercy 349+368=717.

MOUNT MERCY: 16. Meg Monson 79+87=166, 25. Mackenzie Noble 88+86=174, 34. Paige Wenger 86+95=181, 44. Chelsea Gryp 96+102=198, 46. Kristina Furler 102+100=202, Emily Machula 102+100=202. Note: Machula playing as an individual and not counted in team scoring.