

Salter helps Mustang women top Grace

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 17 October 2015 01:22 -

Cally Salter scored three goals to lead the Mount Mercy women's soccer team in a 5-1 win over Grace on Friday at HECO Field at Xavier High School.

Amy McGlynn scored a goal to give the Mustangs a 1-0 lead in the 12th minute with an assist by Sam Blowers. Salter then scored her hat trick with goals in the 16th, 27th and 58th minutes. Megan Hall and Lizzy Fowler had assists, and one of Salter's goals was unassisted.

Grace scored in the 68th minute, and Maisey McCoy finished the scoring with an unassisted goal for Mount Mercy in the 88th minute.

Mount Mercy out-shot Grace 21-4, and Hannah Schroeder had one save for the Mustangs.

Mount Mercy improved to 4-7-2, while Grace fell to 2-9.