HANNIBAL Mo. - The Mount Mercy men's soccer team fell behind 4-0, then scored three goals in the final 10 minutes, but couldn't net the tying score in a 4-3 loss Wednesday to Hannibal-LaGrange at Blackwell Field.

The hosts led 2-0 at half and scored their fourth goal in the 80th minute before March Fichtner, Kory Boebel and Felix Budde scored over the next eight minutes to cut the gap to the final margin.

Ben Franklin and Santiago Lostao had assists for the Mustangs (13-4). The victory moved Hannibal-LaGrange to 8-4-3.
