LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga. - Nikki Neal scored a pair of second half goals after assisting on a goal in the first half, leading Central Christian College to a 3-1 women's soccer victory over Mount Mercy in opening round of the All Tournament on Wednesday.

The Tigers (16-3) dominated the game, holding the Mustangs to just two shots on goal. Haley McMath scored the opening goal for Central Christian in the 21st minute before Neal put the game out of reach with tallies in 59th and 69th minutes.

Mount Mercy, which finishes its season at 6-10-2, averted the shutout when Megan Atkin scored an unassisted goal in the 70th minute.
