

Mustang women lead Clarke golf

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 16 September 2018 04:53 -

GALENA, Ill. - Casey Noble shot an 8-over-par 80 Saturday as the Mount Mercy women's golf team moved into first place at the Clarke Fall Invitational at the Eagle Ridge South course in Galena, Ill.

The final round is scheduled for Sunday.

Noble has a two-shot lead heading into Day 2. Allyson Wertz of Mount Mercy shot an 84 Saturday and is tied for fourth.

Mount Mercy owns a 14-shot lead over Saint Ambrose heading into the final 18 holes.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Mount Mercy 339, 2. Saint Ambrose 353, 3. (tie) Dubuque 355, Viterbo 355, 5. Wisconsin-Platteville 395, 6. Loras 403, 7. Clarke 410.

Mount Mercy - Casey Noble 80, Allyson Wertz 84, Natalea Cook 86, Cheyenne Broquard 89, Kayla Stammer 91.