

Mustangs spike No. 7 Ottawa at tourney

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 26 January 2019 07:20 -

PARKVILLE, Mo. - The Mount Mercy men's volleyball upset seventh-ranked Ottawa University, 20-25, 25-22, 17-25, 27-25, 15-13, at the Park University tournament in Missouri Friday.

The Mustangs fell behind 2-1 after the first three sets, then prevailed in the last two sets with a clutch performance.

Nikola Stoimenov collected 26 kills and three blocks for the Mustangs against Ottawa. Andrew Colantone contributed 50 aces and nine digs. Julian Armendano had 13 kills and eight digs.

Mount Mercy lost to fifth-ranked Park University, 23-25, 25-16, 25-23, 25-21, in its other match at the tournament Friday. The Mustangs won the first set before falling short.

Stoimenov had 16 kills and three blocks against Park University. Colantone dished out 32 assists. Armendano had 10 kills and 10 digs.

The Mustangs (2-3) have two more matches at the tournament on Saturday.